

STRONG AND SMART:

REINFORCING ABORIGINAL PERCEPTIONS OF BEING
ABORIGINAL AT CHERBOURG
STATE SCHOOL

DECLARATION

I declare that this thesis is my own account of my research and contains as its main content work which has not previously been submitted for a degree at any tertiary institution.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis is dedicated to the Strong, Smart, Young Black and Deadly children of Cherbourg State School. What a ripple they started.

I acknowledge the efforts of their parents, Elders and other community members. I also acknowledge the efforts of the exceptional team that worked with me at Cherbourg State School and in particular that of the teacher aides who never gave up because they believed in something better for their community's children. I make special mention of those special colleagues who have now passed; Michael Blackman, and the late great Richard 'Hooper' Coleman.

Thanks also to my intellectual mentor and the man who made me see the world differently, Dr Gary MacLennan.

Finally, I acknowledge the great sacrifices of my wife and little family, who lost so many hours of my time as a husband and father while I was in the back shed writing. Thank you Grace, Ezra, Talia and Marcellus.

The pelican has landed!
